1. Behold the lamb that was slain.
Behold the lamb that was slain.
Behold the lamb that was slain before the foundation of the world; the earth.
Behold the lamb that was slain before the foundation of the earth.
Behold my family.

2. Behold the lamb. Behold each other. Behold I am. I am I am. You are I am. You hold the residue of me, not; microscopic residue thought, not; you with hold me; you hold me; you have me; the fullness of me. Yea, watch me. I love you.

3. Into me see; see what I have said; see what I have given; see how I reveal myself so very clearly; perfectly clearly; perfectly and in no parable do I state that I am in you. The size of me, the power of me, the potency of me, the importance of me, I am.
Behold the lamb that was slain before the foundation of the world.
And the earth groans; the earth groaned; and groaned it did, and will again, and does; and brings forth birth pangs many. Watch me.

4. Into me see all I am doing, all I am saying, all I have given; for months, for weeks; now for two years almost; revealing myself; revealing who I am, what I am; what I am made of; what I do, how I do it; who you are, where you came from; yea, and so much more will I come unto myself, will I come into myself.

5. Yea, have I come into myself? Have I come into you? Yea, am I released in fullness yea, of the Godhead bodily? I am. I do. I will, if you let me. Will you let me be me? Will you come unto me all you who are heavy laden, and let me give you rest? Transporting you; translating you; transforming you, yea, into my body who you are already; into my body who you've waited to be; who you've studied; who you know exist; yea, the kingdom of heaven; subject to time and space, not.

6. I love you and I give you me. I give you molecular engineering on the most microscopic level. I give you nano-tectic robots/robotics. I give you my hand and blood. I love you. Fire/wind/water/rain; watch me; my blood; the light; watch me. Watch me. Wait not coming into me.

7. See all I have said. See me. See me. See me not forsaken. See me not demised. See the fullness of you coming forth in the fullness of me; the fullness of me released; the fullness of me coming forth; yea, my mighty many. You, if you choose.

8. The time is now. The day is now. The moment is this moment, for all things are ready. My time is now. Your time is now. My hand, your hand; my word, your word; my writings, your writings; yea, my word filling the earth; coming forth in my promise; coming forth in plan and preference with a respect to no man; respecting all so meekly; so meekly; so very meekly.

9. A man of sorrows, acquainted with grief, who will see? Who will see me? Who will see me? Who will seek me? Who will follow me? Who will follow me as who I am, and label me not? Label me out, label me in; label, label, label; labelitis the flesh.

10. I am not flesh and blood. I am flesh and blood of all. All my body are my flesh and my blood. Yea, if they only knew. You know. You know, Ted, and now you tell them. You know this is your message. You know you are taking, who you are, where you came from, why you are here, what you are doing, why you are doing it, in every aspect, intricacy, and detail you have; and more will you share to them, for them, to know all the same about them; intricate webs of deceit not, but the most beautiful tapestries, yea, that I weave in truth; are truth, truth being.

11. I see tomorrow. I see today. I see beyond past, and through time, for time is representative of multiple realities not; universes upon layers spanning the breadths; the breadth of my hand. I love you. In my hand you are. I love you. I give you me. Fashion and form of me you are, with no holds barred.

12. See what I have said, what I say, and what I will continue to say; and what I will continue to banner forth in that which I will use you in; to come forth in; and banter, not, but banner me forth in the reality of truth; the truth of my reality in every one of my body; my body all; of every label; no label; labels so perverting.

13. I give you me; holiness of only me. I love you. Saint not; sinner not; thou hast sinned; my blood covers. Thou art grace; my grace covers. Thou art glory; my glory covers; and let not the doctrine of devils deceive the grace and glory that you are from your light; from your blood, my blood; my light; my being, your being.

14. I love you. I give you me. I give you me. You please me. I give you me.
